

Known affectionately as the “Jones Course”, this breathtaking 18-hole course is among every golfer’s favorites. Featuring rolling hills on the front nine and varying dog legs on the back, the course meanders through woodlands, wetlands and grasslands. Four sets of tees on each hole, coupled with 44 bunkers mixed in, provide a unique challenge to players of all abilities. On the back none, water comes into play on seven holes, and the undulating slope of the greens will challenge both the astute and novice players.

Lyman Orchards is located at the junctions of Rt. 147 and Rt. 157 in Middlefield. The main entrance to the Golf Club is on Rt. 157.

Fr. Michael J. McGivney
Vocations Fund

The Fr. Michael J. McGivney Vocation Fund of the Connecticut State Council supports men studying for the priesthood or religious life throughout Connecticut.

It is interesting to note that tuition for one seminarian for one week costs an average of $250.

Funds raised from the Annual Vocations Classic assist the State Council in their ongoing efforts to support vocations throughout Connecticut, while encouraging local councils to do the same.
